GRECIANS AND BULGARIANS FIGHTING

BALKANS NATIONS AT WAR MEMBERS OF WORLD LEAGUE

Are at Each Others Throats
Trouble Arose Over a Fight Between Troops On the Border—The War It Is Thought Will Be of Short
Duration As It Will Be
Squelched By the League
of Nations.

The Bulgarian telegraph agency says the Greeks resumed their bombardment of Petrich at 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon and continued their advance, two battalions proceeding along the right bank of the Struma to ward Petrich and a third seemingly marching on the village of Petrovo, nine miles from the Struma.

The agency adds that up to the present the Bulgarian troops have obeyed their orders not to engage the Greeks.

The road running to Sveti Ratch is asserted to be congested with refugees whom the Bulgarian government cannot possibly shelter or feed.

The fighting between the Greek and Bulgarian forces in Macedonia, growing out of frontier encounters between the guards of the two countries several days ago, appears from all accounts to be slackening, at least temporarily, and on Monday the council of the League of Nations acting on the appeal of Bulgaria, will meet in extraordinary session in Paris to take up the dispute.

Representatives of Greece and Bulgaria have been invited to state their claims before the council.

An official communique issued at Athens stated that the military operations may be considered ended, the Greek troops having "attained their objective" by advancing into Bulgaria as far as Petrich. This was followed later by an official announcement of evacuation of Greek territory by the Bulgarians, but it was added that the Bulgarians, in order to prevent reoccupation of an evacuated blockhouse, still were firing on Greek positions.

The view expressed in official quarters in the Greek capital is that the incident now is entering "a purely diplomatic phase." It is pointed out, however, that Greece will demand satisfaction for the alleged Bulgarian aggression in the Demirhisar region last Monday.

On the other hand, the Bulgarian authorities are insisting that the fault lies with the Greek guards. They admitted in their appeal to the League that Bulgarians killed a Greek soldier but insisted that he first had attacked a Bulgarian sentinel on Bulgarian soil.

Official quarters in Sofia, recruiting the consequences of two days of fighting, say that 25 Bulgarians have been killed and 15,000 made homeless and that 240 square miles of Bulgarian territory has been occupied by the Greeks.

The official Green announcement that the military operation may be considered ended seems to be borne out by a message from a correspondent of the Associated Press, who, writing from Petrich, says that as he was leaving the town the firing had ceased and the Greek operations appeared to have stopped. The town of Petrich is described in this dispatch as a mass of ruins and deserted by the inhabitants.

action quickly at Geneva in connection with the conflict of which has arisen between Greece and Bulgaria. Soon after he received an appeal for League intervention from the Bulgarian government, Sir Eric Drummond, secretary general of the League exercising his right under the covenant, decided to convoke a special session of the council at Paris Monday. M. Briand, as president of the council, approved the secretary general's decision.

COUNTERFEIT MONEY MAKERS UNDER ARREST

Twelve Men and Two Women
Held for Manufacturing
Spurious Coins.

Columbus, O., Oct. 23 (UP).—Twelve men and two women were under arrest here today in connection with the operations of an alleged counterfeiting ring.

The alleged ringleader, Henry Anthony 41, of Springfield, was captured on a farm ten miles north of Springfield.

At the same time, department of justice operatives seized what they said was $90 worth of spurious quarters. The quarters were found cached in a dump near Springfield.

Before arresting Anthony, officers took eleven men and two women into custody here. These admitted counterfeiting operations and named Anthony as their leader, officers said.

Names of the eleven men and two women were withheld.

Other arrests are expected, federal officers said. The extent of the ring's alleged operations, according to the officers, was statewide in scope and resulted in the floating of thousands of dollars in counterfeit coins.

Years.

Peter Glick, who has been a long-time, steady and reliable employee of the Scioto Grain and Supply Company, Ashville, has severed his connection with the firm and is taking a much needed rest from this long service.

Mr. Glick says that twenty-two years seems now to be a long while to be on one job, but that these years were busy ones and passed swiftly. He says, too, that he has traveled many a mile in these 22 years between his home and the grain elevator. No, he has no notion of quitting work, but has not yet decided what he will do when once he is through with his well-earned vacation.

Unless Expenses are Curtailed
Surplus Will Vanish
Governor is Told.

Columbus, O., Oct. 23 (UP).— Unless state expenditures are curtailed to meet reduced revenues, Ohio's cash treasury surplus will vanish, State Auditor Day told Governor Vic Donahey in his annual report.

"In other words," Day's report said, "Ohio will be bordering on the rocks of bankruptcy."

During the year ended June 30, Day's report pointed out, treasury receipts for other than specific purposes were $5,000,000 less and expenditures $4,500,000 more than during the preceding year.

"To put it literally," Day told the governor, "the state of Ohio went back $9,500,000 financially for the fiscal year."

PICKAWAY'S FINEST CROP BABIES ON PARADE FRIDAY

Comic And Character Parade Was Great Success—Carnival Spirit Much In Evidence Friday, But Rain Today Dampend Ardor of Participants—Products of Field, Garden, Orchard, Kitchen And Sewing Table Tell Story of County's Richness.

The second day of the 1925 Pumpkin Show will go into history as one of those having the largest attendance of any previous entertainment given on Friday.

People realized that the show was really on and as the day was propitious, they took no chances but came in hordes. The roads leading to the city were lined with gas propelled vehicles and parking places were found for all comers. The traction-line had all it could do to carry the people from Columbus; the southbound cars were lined to the guards before leaving the Capital City and the myriads of people that filled the business section of the city was a fair index of the number that were in our gates Friday evening.

Tiring of the many inanimate exhibits the crowds were eager to see the live exhibits, the most important crop of any community, the babies of 1925. When it comes to that line of production, Pickaway county is the peer of any county in the state. We have the prettiest babies barring no county in this great state, and why shouldn't we? Is not this the richest agricultural district in the great Scioto Valley?

For hours people stood in line in the afternoon watching for the parade of the Baby show. The innocents came along decorated in the best raiment that the fond mothers could lavish on their offspring. Some of the kiddies could not stand the long wait of forming the line and as they came Morpheus, had them wrapped in subconsciousness. As they passed along the streets thru the oceans of people lining the business thoroughfares, they were most generously applauded.

Gloria Ruth Reid carried off the honors as the prettiest white baby, under the age of one year and Catharine Leta Viney won the honor in the colored class. Jack Storts was awarded the prize for the prettiest white baby between one and two years. In the colored class, same age Gerald Foster Mosley carried off the honors.

The prettiest twins were Gale and Dale McKinley. Best play outfit with little girl in charge Vida Turner. Best novelty outfit with child in charge, Harley Brown. Prettiest and most artistic decorated buggy, Martha Ann Bond.

Seventy-five entrants were in line and there was some truly artistic outfits.

As the day grew older the streets began to take on a carnival spirit. Everybody was out for a good time and they enjoyed themselves to the limit.

By the time the carnival and character parade was ready to move, the streets along the line of march became almost impassable and the police had difficulty in forcing a passageway for the parade, which was most fantastic and gorgeous. Laughter and admiration greeted the original makeups, which were true to the spirit of Hallowe'en. Some of the most farcical were in line and it was a real Mardi Gras procession.

Mrs. J. C. Rader, chairman of this section, was kept busy. She had one hundred entrants to line up and it was a man's job.

In the comic class, the first prize was awarded to Miss Anna Dresbach, Warner Dresbach and Mrs. Jacob Young. They impersonated the characters of Sambo and Eliza Huckleberry and their son, Jappy.

In the Character division, the first prize was awarded to Gerald and Eloise Hanley and Virgil Pontius. The trio represented movers from Pumpkin Center.

Jupiter Pluvius arrived early Saturday morning from the east and sent down a copious sample of wetness which had a tendency to put a dampener on things.

Mary Row, daughter of Dan Row, has accepted a position at the imbecile institution at Orient, Ohio.

DERBY

Mrs. Rachel Poulson died at the home of her stepdaughter, Mrs. Will Willoughby, last Wednesday afternoon. Her funeral sermon was preached at the M. E. church Friday forenoon by Rev. Mr. Miller, who was pastor of Derby charge last year.

On Saturday forenoon Rev. Mr. Miller preached the funeral of Mr. Charles Deyo at the same church. Mr. Deyo and wife moved from here last summer. He died at the K. of P. home at Springfield.

Mrs. Jennie Lawrence Johnson, of Big Plain visited Mrs. M. C. Edwards Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Locey spent last week at New Holland visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spangler and Mrs. Alma Hays attended the funeral of little Janice Kathryn Vance at Green Hill Friday afternoon. Little Janice was the daughter of Carlton and Florence Vance and niece of Mr. Spangler.

Do not forget to come to the M. E. church for Sunday school and preaching Sunday. We have secured Rev. Mr. Curtis of Dayton and hope he will like us enough to become our permanent pastor.

Ralph Nance was very sick the latter part of the week.

Guard Proves He's Alive

London is full of tourists from practically all countries and most of the overseas visitors never fail to be interested in the stalwart guardsmen on duty at the Horse Guards headquarters in Whitehall.

Some stare at them deliberately and one French girl refused to believe one motionless figure was alive. She stood alone and gazed harder, then suddenly joined her English friends looking somewhat flushed. She explained that the soldier was real after all—he had deliberately winked at her.

Women Filipino Farmers

Women students were admitted this year to study agriculture in the college of agriculture at Los Banos, Philippine Islands, and seven are now enrolled. Several have petitioned for admission to the farm school at Munos, but so far their application has been denied.

Bear, Believed Extinct, Is Sighted in Forest

San Francisco.—Evidence that the California grizzly bear may not be extinct, as believed, has been received here by the California Academy of Sciences.

Col. John R. White, superintendent of Sequoia National park, reported he had seen a large grizzly of the California type in giant forests.

Destruction of the California grizzly began with the gold rush, when the miners went after the bear with fear in their hearts. One of the last known survivors of the species died here in captivity in 1911.

Typifying strength and intelligence, the bear was put on the state flag in 1847 when Mexican dominion of California was broken, but the people did not have the foresight to protect it from destruction.

Dr. Barton Warren Evermann, director of the natural history museum here, said there probably are not more than 600 grizzly bears of all types left in North America.

Ancients Were Advertisers

In ancient Greece certain spaces on the outer walls of homes were used for advertising purposes, either to offer real estate or homemade articles for sale or to designate a place of residence or barter. In Pompeii, when it was uncovered, many such walls were found and Roman ruins revealed that real estate especially was offered in that way. The first newspaper advertisement did not actually appear until about 1647, it is said. The cost was about $1 for 2 inches per person reached. In big dailies now the cost is about 1 cent per page per home reached.

—WE SAVE YOU MONEY—

The time is passed when the measure of the value of a memorial is quantity. I hope the time has come when that measure is quality. I care not whether the material be marble or granite, its future will be measured by the character of the design. It is quality that has preserved us the finest examples in painting and sculpture. It is quality that will stamp our imprint upon cemeteries of the future. Simplicity, correct lines and proportions and proper ornamentation are the real fundamentals. A design that is right, material that is lasting and perfect workmanship, spells success for the future of this industry and the beautification of the cemetery. Will you let me help you select the memorial for your lot. Call at show room. NO AGENTS.

AMUSEMENTS
In the picture Richard Dix has been about everything under the sun of late but an automobile racing driver, and it is as such that we find him in the Frank Tuttle-Paramount production, "The Lucky Devil," which opened at the Metropolitan theater yesterday.
The story was written especially for Dix by Byron Morgan, who wrote all the auto pictures in which Wally Reid starred. As Randy Farman, Dix has always wanted a car of his own, and his chance to get out into the open comes when as a demonstrator of auto camping outfits in a department store, he wins a trim little speeder—and then there's no holding him.
There's a series of big laugh scenes "on the road" when he meets Doris McDee (Esther Ralston) and her mother, played by Edna May Oliver. Something turns up that brings Mrs. McDee to believe that Randy isn't just the kind of a fellow she'd care to have her daughter associate with, so off they go from camp early the following morning without as much as a word to him. Dix is after them as soon as he opens his eyes, catches up to them and, after considerable explaining, convinces them that he's not a bad sort of chap after all.
A big "punch" scene in the picture—we say "a" because there are hundreds of them—is the $10,000 automobile road race, in which Dix drives his own car. And Dix drives it! You will want to stand right up on the seat and cheer as Dix comes tearing down the home stretch in the lead—and then something happens. It's a "smash" climax with a vengeance!
Here's a picture that's so full of fast moving action that it fairly burns up the screen. It's one you'll go out of the theater talking about, and then when you see other auto picture, you will always compare them to "The Lucky Devil." It's that kind of a picture!
The cast playing in support of Paramount's new star includes such well known names as "Gunboat" Smith, Anthony Jewett, Joe Burke, Mary Foy and Charles Sellon.

ELIMINATE POLITICS FROM TAX HEARING
Washington, Oct. 22.—(UP.)—Following a series of political tilts with members of the Iowa tax club the house ways and means committee today ordered politics barred from discussion at its hearings, and instructed future witnesses to confine themselves exclusively to taxes.
Representative Oldfield, Dem., Ark., raised the question when the committee met for its fourth hearing on the new $300,000,000 tax reduction bill and asked that no more political arguments be indulged in.
"Political discussion is not in order before the committee," Chairman Green, Republican of Iowa, ruled.

Alien Tells of Florida Ring Smuggling Him In
Tampa, Fla.—A confession purporting to reveal the extensive operation of alien smugglers along the western coast of Florida was in the hands of authorities here.
The confession, made by Alfred Santos, a Portuguese, designated himself as leader of a band of nine aliens smuggled into Tampa from Cuba and held prisoners for twelve days when they failed to pay the required fees.
Deportation proceedings will be instituted against members of the band, all of whom, except a six-year-old son of Santos, are being held in jail here. The boy was sent to relatives at Taunton, Mass.
The men waded ashore at Hooker Point, at night, he said, when they concluded passage on a two-masted sloop from Havana. Women and children in the party were carried ashore by sailors.

A System of Farming That Brings Health and Prosperity

Every farm, regardless of the method of farming practiced or of the crops raised, should have at least a few good milch cows to provide

- (1) Enough milk, cream and butter for home use;
- (2) Enough skim-milk to raise some calves, pigs and chickens;
- (3) Enough cream or butter to sell to pay, in part or entirely, current living expenses.

This plan has been a "life-saver" for thousands of farmers, especially during the hard times of the past two years. It insures a living, at least, and often other income besides.

Such a plan pays best with a De Laval
Cream Separator. It soon pays for itself—
and skims cleaner, lasts longer and is easier to operate and clean than any other.

Played Golf in Old New York's Streets

One doesn't as a rule think of the Dutch of old Nieuw Amsterdam as sportsmen. Washington Irving has left us an indelible picture of a stout person, smoking an enormous pipe, or at most, playing at bowls with much puffing and straining. As a matter of fact, however, they were ardent sportsmen. They raced, boated, skated, even golfed, with zeal.

It is a matter of record that in 1650 Peter Stuyvesant had to issue an edict forbidding the followers of the grand old Scotch game from driving their balls on the streets of the town. It appears that in their zeal, the burghers had been using the thoroughfares as fairways, and great was the danger of life and limb of the innocent bystanders.

Imagine driving a golf ball from Taylor's east on Petticoat lane during the noon hour! And then they talk about motor cars.

Showed That Hill Could Be Climbed

Eighty-nine years ago, on the Philadelphia & Columbia railroad, it was first demonstrated that ascents could be made by railway locomotives. Before that time the upgrade from the Schuylkill had been made by the aid of stationary engines and ropes.

Thus another objection to the steam railroad was shown to be useless. Previously, the "wise ones"—the chronic objectors to all innovations—had sagely observed that while locomotives might be all very well on a level, they would be useless in the "hill country."

This judgment was accepted as final until July 10, 1836, when the management of the Philadelphia & Columbia road determined to put it to a test. To the utter amazement of the spectators the locomotive puffed slowly but surely up the incline.

Element of Pure Value

Doubtless there is in every art an element of mere knowledge and that element is progressive. But there is another element, too, which does not depend on knowledge, and which does not progress, but has a kind of stationary and eternal value, like the beauty of the dawn, or the love of a mother for her child, or the joy of a young animal in being alive, or the courage of a martyr facing torment. We cannot for all our progress get beyond these things; there they stand, like light upon the mountains. The only question is whether we can rise to them.—Sir Gilbert Murray, in "The Legacy of Greece."

Little Difference

At a chateau where he was recently a guest a certain Parisian who does not approve of the boyish appearance of the modern young girl was approached by a lady guest.

"Madame," said he earnestly. "I do not know. In 1920 I had a boy of twelve and a girl of fourteen. But now I am not sure. I believe they are both boys. At all events I assure you that it is quite impossible for me to tell which is the boy and which is the girl."—Le Figaro, Paris.

Yugo-Slavia Water Power

Within the borders of that modern Balkan state, Yugo-Slavia, there are water-power sites available for hydro-electric development which could produce 3,056,000 horse power of electrical energy. Along the Drau river there are sites which could produce approximately 400,000 horse power, while nearly 750,000 horse power of electrical energy could be produced by hydro plants along the Danube.

THE COUNTRY DOCTOR

When Montgomery, Ohio, took a vote recently in town meeting to determine the most distinguished citizen of that village and county, the choice fell unanimously on an old rural physician of the locality, who for forty-seven years had "climbed down from the muddy hub of his rig beside lonely farmhouses, watched the night through in the grim battle of life, turned the sheet tenderly over the faces of those he had perhaps brought into the world, and sympathized with the family in its hour of grief."

What a wonderful tribute that was! And how just!—Ft. Wayne News-Sentinel.

Heat with Distinction

At last it is proved that a home heater can be good looking—ornamental, if you will—as well as a practical heat-producing utility.

The Mueller Furnacette marks the greatest advance in home heating equipment since the invention of the heating stove. It is the joint creation of master furniture designers and skilled heating engineers. There is distinction in every line of its well-balanced, walnut-grained, vitreous enamel cabinet.

And as for heat—never was there an above-floor heater of any kind that could compare with the Furnacette in heating efficiency! It heats the whole house by continuously re-circulating warm, moist air thru all the rooms. It provides more comfortable, more uniform heat than two or three stoves combined, yet uses no more fuel than an ordinary heating stove.

Modern Rome to Build

Two Big Public Baths

Rome.—Public baths, which constituted part of the greatness of ancient Rome, are beginning to come into vogue again with the ever-growing interest in athletics on the part of Italian youth.

Inspired partly by the grandiose ruins of such ancient structures as the baths of Caracalla and Diocletian and partly by the practicability of modern gymnasiums, Italian architects have drawn up plans for the erection of two massive structures which are destined to serve the Roman public not only as baths but also as athletic and sport centers.

One of these is to be constructed in the Piazza Risorgimento, in the center
of one of Rome's most rapidly growing residential sections.

The Extravagance of Cheapness!

If one has money to waste on clothing, it may be all right to buy some of the so called "cheap"
goods that are so freely adver-

But comparatively few people
can afford this form of extrava-

of his expenditures is not wast-

ting clothes whose only attraction is a low first cost.

However, the shrewd and discerning buyers have contributed

GRECIANS AND BULGARIANS FIGHTING

BALKANS NATIONS AT WAR MEMBERS OF WORLD LEAGUE

Are at Each Others Throats
Trouble Arose Over a Fight Between Troops On the Border—The War It Is Thought Will Be of Short
Duration As It Will Be
Squelched By the League
of Nations.

The Bulgarian telegraph agency says the Greeks resumed their bombardment of Petrich at 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon and continued their advance, two battalions proceeding along the right bank of the Struma toward Petrich and a third seemingly marching on the village of Petrovo, nine miles from the Struma.

The agency adds that up to the present the Bulgarian troops have obeyed their orders not to engage the Greeks.

The road running to Sveti Ratch is asserted to be congested with refugees whom the Bulgarian government cannot possibly shelter or feed.

The fighting between the Greek and Bulgarian forces in Macedonia, growing out of frontier encounters between the guards of the two countries several days ago, appears from all accounts to be slackening, at least temporarily, and on Monday the council of the League of Nations acting on the appeal of Bulgaria, will meet in extraordinary session in Paris to take up the dispute.

Representatives of Greece and Bulgaria have been invited to state their claims before the council.

An official communique issued at Athens stated that the military operations may be considered ended, the Greek troops having "attained their objective" by advancing into Bulgaria as far as Petrich. This was followed later by an official announcement of evacuation of Greek territory by the Bulgarians, but it was added that the Bulgarians, in order to prevent reoccupation of an evacuated blockhouse, still were firing on Greek positions.

The view expressed in official quarters in the Greek capital is that the incident now is entering "a purely diplomatic phase." It is pointed out, however, that Greece will demand satisfaction for the alleged Bulgarian aggression in the Demirhisar region last Monday.

On the other hand, the Bulgarian authorities are insisting that the fault lies with the Greek guards. They admitted in their appeal to the League that Bulgarians killed a Greek soldier but insisted that he first had attacked a Bulgarian sentinel on Bulgarian soil.

Official quarters in Sofia, recruiting the consequences of two days of fighting, say that 25 Bulgarians have been killed and 15,000 made homeless and that 240 square miles of Bulgarian territory has been occupied by the Greeks.

The official Green announcement that the military operation may be considered ended seems to be borne out by a message from a correspondent of the Associated Press, who, writing from Petrich, says that as he was leaving the town the firing had ceased and the Greek operations appeared to have stopped. The town of Petrich is described in this dispatch as a mass of ruins and deserted by the inhabitants.

action quickly at Geneva in connection with the conflict of which has arisen between Greece and Bulgaria. Soon after he received an appeal for League intervention from the Bulgarian government, Sir Eric Drummond, secretary general of the League exercising his right under the covenant, decided to convoke a special session of the council at Paris Monday. M. Briand, as president of the council, approved the secretary general's decision.

COUNTERFEIT MONEY MAKERS UNDER ARREST

Twelve Men and Two Women
Held for Manufacturing
Spurious Coins.

Columbus, O., Oct. 23 (UP).—Twelve men and two women were under arrest here today in connection with the operations of an alleged counterfeiting ring.

The alleged ringleader, Henry Anthony 41, of Springfield, was captured on a farm ten miles north of Springfield.

At the same time, department of justice operatives seized what they said was $90 worth of spurious quarters. The quarters were found cached in a dump near Springfield.

Before arresting Anthony, officers took eleven men and two women into custody here. These admitted counterfeiting operations and named Anthony as their leader, officers said.

Names of the eleven men and two women were withheld.

Other arrests are expected, federal officers said. The extent of the ring's alleged operations, according to the officers, was statewide in scope and resulted in the floating of thousands of dollars in counterfeit coins.

After a Service of 22
Years.

Peter Glick, who has been a long-time, steady and reliable employee of the Scioto Grain and Supply Company, Ashville, has severed his connection with the firm and is taking a much needed rest from this long service.

Mr. Glick says that twenty-two years seems now to be a long while to be on one job, but that these years were busy ones and passed swiftly. He says, too, that he has traveled many a mile in these 22 years between his home and the grain elevator. No, he has no notion of quitting work, but has not yet decided what he will do when once he is through with his well-earned vacation.

There is also a muzzle loading rifle and a real bowie knife in the exhibit. Altogether it makes a most interesting show.

Cincinnati.—More than 150 men, women and children, clad in night attire, groped their way thru smoke filled halls to the street when fire menaced the Newland hotel here early Friday. The blaze was confined to the elevator shaft where it originated altho a near panic among the guests ensued. No one was injured. One room was slightly damaged.

Canton.—Youthful strength and a contest to withstand punishment, cost the life of George Yarik, 18, high school student and football player.

Yarik boasted of his "chestiness," according to fellow students and invited Horton White, 14, to strike him as hard as he could. White complied and Coroner McQuats held that Yarik died from a blow over the heart.

Columbus.—Upon his retirement November 5, President W. O. Thompson of Ohio State university will go to Denver, Colorado, to fill temporarily the pulpit of the Central Presbyterian church there, he announced Friday.

President Thompson began his career near Denver 40 years ago. He was president of Longmont college near Denver, from 1885 to 1889.

Toledo.—Armed with an ice pick and a knife, Albert Randall, 29, Toledo, forced his way into the office of Police Chief Jennings Friday and attempted to attack the official.

Randall was dragged from Jennings office and taken to a cell-block where he slashed Tom Beckler, a turnkey, with the knife.

Dayton.—Homer Ebert, 33, captured early Friday after a sensational chase, at noon confessed that he held up a Springfield chain grocery store manager last Saturday escaping with $12.

Unless Expenses are Curtailed
Surplus Will Vanish
Governor is Told.

Columbus, O., Oct. 23 (UP).—Unless state expenditures are curtailed to meet reduced revenues, Ohio's cash treasury surplus will vanish, State Auditor Day told Governor Vic Donahey in his annual report.

"In other words," Day's report said, "Ohio will be bordering on the rocks of bankruptcy."

During the year ended June 30, Day's report pointed out, treasury receipts for other than specific purposes were $5,000,000 less and expenditures $4,500,000 more than during the preceding year.

"To put it literally," Day told the governor, "the state of Ohio went back $9,500,000 financially for the fiscal year."

PICKAWAY'S FINEST CROP BABIES ON PARADE FRIDAY

Comic And Character Parade Was Great Success—Carnival Spirit Much In Evidence Friday, But Rain Today Dampend Ardor of Participants—Products of Field, Garden, Orchard, Kitchen And Sewing Table Tell Story of County's Richness.

The second day of the 1925 Pumpkin Show will go into history as one of those having the largest attendance of any previous entertainment given on Friday.

People realized that the show was really on and as the day was propitious, they took no chances but came in hordes. The roads leading to the city were lined with gas propelled vehicles and parking places were found for all comers. The traction-line had all it could do to carry the people from Columbus; the southbound cars were lined to the guards before leaving the Capital City and the myriads of people that filled the business section of the city was a fair index of the number that were in our gates Friday evening.

Tiring of the many inanimate exhibits the crowds were eager to see the live exhibits, the most important crop of any community, the babies of 1925. When it comes to that line of production, Pickaway county is the peer of any county in the state. We have the prettiest babies barring no county in this great state, and why shouldn't we? Is not this the richest agricultural district in the great Scioto Valley?

For hours people stood in line in the afternoon watching for the parade of the Baby show. The innocents came along decorated in the best raiment that the fond mothers could lavish on their offspring. Some of the kiddies could not stand the long wait of forming the line and as they came Morpheus, had them wrapped in subconsciousness. As they passed along the streets thru the oceans of people lining the business thoroughfares, they were most generously applauded.

Gloria Ruth Reid carried off the honors as the prettiest white baby, under the age of one year and Catharine Leta Viney won the honor in the colored class. Jack Storts was awarded the prize for the prettiest white baby between one and two years. In the colored class, same age Gerald Foster Mosley carried off the honors.

The prettiest twins were Gale and Dale McKinley. Best play outfit with little girl in charge Vida Turner. Best novelty outfit with child in charge, Harley Brown. Prettiest and most artistic decorated buggy, Martha Ann Bond.

Seventy-five entrants were in line and there was some truly artistic outfits.

As the day grew older the streets began to take on a carnival spirit. Everybody was out for a good time and they enjoyed themselves to the limit.

By the time the carnival and character parade was ready to move, the streets along the line of march became almost impassable and the police had difficulty in forcing a passageway for the parade, which was most fantastic and gorgeous. Laughter and admiration greeted the original makeups, which were true to the spirit of Hallowe'en. Some of the most farcical were in line and it was a real Mardi Gras procession.

Mrs. J. C. Rader, chairman of this section, was kept busy. She had one hundred entrants to line up and it was a man's job.

In the comic class, the first prize was awarded to Miss Anna Dresbach, Warner Dresbach and Mrs. Jacob Young. They impersonated the characters of Sambo and Eliza Huckleberry and their son, Jappy.

In the Character division, the first prize was awarded to Gerald and Eloise Hanley and Virgil Pontius. The trio represented movers from Pumpkin Center.

Jupiter Pluvius arrived early Saturday morning from the east and sent down a copious sample of wetness which had a tendency to put a dampen on things.

Guard Proves He's Alive
London is full of tourists from practically all countries and most of the overseas visitors never fail to be interested in the stalwart guardsmen on duty at the Horse Guards headquarters in Whitehall.
Some stare at them deliberately and one French girl refused to believe one motionless figure was alive. She stood alone and gazed harder, then suddenly joined her English friends looking somewhat flushed. She explained that the soldier was real after all—he had deliberately winked at her.

Bear, Believed Extinct, Is Sighted in Forest
San Francisco.—Evidence that the California grizzly bear may not be extinct, as believed, has been received here by the California Academy of Sciences.
Col. John R. White, superintendent of Sequoia National park, reported he had seen a large grizzly of the California type in giant forests.
Destruction of the California grizzly began with the gold rush, when the miners went after the bear with fear in their hearts. One of the last known survivors of the species died here in captivity in 1911.
Typifying strength and intelligence, the bear was put on the state flag in 1847 when Mexican dominion of California was broken, but the people did not have the foresight to protect it from destruction.
Dr. Barton Warren Evermann, director of the natural history museum here, said there probably are not more than 600 grizzly bears of all types left in North America.

Ancients Were Advertisers
In ancient Greece certain spaces on the outer walls of homes were used for advertising purposes, either to offer real estate or homemade articles for sale or to designate a place of residence or barter. In Pompeii, when it was uncovered, many such walls were found and Roman ruins revealed that real estate especially was offered in that way. The first newspaper advertisement did not actually appear until about 1647, it is said.
The cost was about $1 for 2 inches per person reached. In big dailies now the cost is about 1 cent per page per home reached.

—WE SAVE YOU MONEY—

The time is passed when the measure of the value of a memorial is quantity. I hope the time has come when that measure is quality. I care not whether the material be marble or granite, its future will be measured by the character of the design. It is quality that has preserved for us the finest examples in painting and sculpture.
It is quality that will stamp our imprint upon cemeteries of the future. Simplicity, correct lines and proportions and proper ornamentation are the real fundamentals. A design that is right, material that is lasting and perfect workmanship, spells success for the future of this industry and the beautification of the cemetery.
Will you let me help you select the memorial for your lot. Call at show room. NO AGENTS.

AMUSEMENTS

In the picture Richard Dix has been about everything under the sun of late but an automobile racing driver, and it is as such that we find him in the Frank Tuttle-Paramount production, "The Lucky Devil," which opened at the Metropolitan theater yesterday.

The story was written especially for Dix by Byron Morgan, who wrote all the auto pictures in which Wally Reid starred. As Randy Farman, Dix has always wanted a car of his own, and his chance to get out into the open comes when as a demonstrator of auto camping outfits in a department store, he wins a trim little speeder—and then there's no holding him.

There's a series of big laugh scenes "on the road" when he meets Doris McDee (Esther Ralston) and her mother, played by Edna May Oliver. Something turns up that brings Mrs. McDee to believe that Randy isn't just the kind of a fellow she'd care to have her daughter associate with, so off they go from camp early the following morning without as much as a word to him. Dix is after them as soon as he opens his eyes, catches up to them and, after considerable explaining, convinces them that he's not a bad sort of chap after all.

A big "punch" scene in the picture—we say "a" because there are hundreds of them—is the $10,000 automobile road race, in which Dix drives his own car. And Dix drives it! You will want to stand right up on the seat and cheer as Dix comes tearing down the home stretch in the lead—and then something happens. It's a "smash" climax with a vengeance!

Here's a picture that's so full of fast moving action that it fairly burns up the screen. It's one you'll go out of the theater talking about, and then when you see other auto picture, you will always compare them to "The Lucky Devil." It's that kind of a picture!

The cast playing in support of Paramount's new star includes such well known names as "Gunboat" Smith, Anthony Jewitt, Joe Burke, Mary Foy and Charles Sellon.

ELIMINATE POLITICS FROM TAX HEARING

Washington, Oct. 22.—(UP.)—Following a series of political tilts with members of the Iowa tax club the house ways and means committee today ordered politics barred from discussion at its hearings, and instructed future witnesses to confine themselves exclusively to taxes.

Representative Oldfield, Dem., Ark., raised the question when the committee met for its fourth hearing on the new $300,000,000 tax reduction bill and asked that no more political arguments be indulged in.

"Political discussion is not in order before the committee," Chairman Green, Republican of Iowa, ruled.

Alien Tells of Florida Ring Smuggling Him In

Tampa, Fla.—A confession purporting to reveal the extensive operation of alien smugglers along the western coast of Florida was in the hands of authorities here.

The confession, made by Alfred Santos, a Portuguese, designated himself as leader of a band of nine aliens smuggled into Tampa from Cuba and held prisoners for twelve days when they failed to pay the required fees.

Deportation proceedings will be instituted against members of the band, all of whom, except a six-year-old son of Santos, are being held in jail here. The boy was sent to relatives at Taunton, Mass.

The men waded ashore at Hooker Point, at night, he said, when they concluded passage on a two-masted sloop from Havana. Women and children in the party were carried ashore by sailors.

A System of Farming That Brings Health and Prosperity

Every farm, regardless of the method of
farming practiced or of the crops raised, should have at least a few good milch cows to provide

- (1) Enough milk, cream and butter for home use;
- (2) Enough skim-milk to raise some calves, pigs and chickens;
- (3) Enough cream or butter to sell to pay, in part or entirely, current living expenses.

This plan has been a "life-saver" for thousands of farmers, especially during the hard times of the past two years. It insures a living, at least, and often other income besides.

Such a plan pays best with a De Laval
Cream Separator. It soon pays for itself—
and skims cleaner, lasts longer and is easier
to operate and clean than any other.

Played Golf in Old
New York's Streets

One doesn't as a rule think of the Dutch of old Nieuw Amsterdam as sportsmen. Washington Irving has left us an indelible picture of a stout person, smoking an enormous pipe, or at most, playing at bowls with much puffing and straining. As a matter of fact, however, they were ardent sportsmen. They raced, boated, skated, even golfed, with zeal.

It is a matter of record that in 1650 Peter Stuyvesant had to issue an edict forbidding the followers of the grand old Scotch game from driving their balls on the streets of the town. It appears that in their zeal, the burghers had been using the thoroughfares as fairways, and great was the danger of life and limb of the innocent bystanders.

Imagine driving a golf ball from Taylor's east on Petticoat lane during the noon hour! And then they talk about motor cars.

Showed That Hill Could Be Climbed

Eighty-nine years ago, on the Philadelphia & Columbia railroad, it was first demonstrated that ascents could be made by railway locomotives. Before that time the upgrade from the Schuylkill had been made by the aid of stationary engines and ropes.

Thus another objection to the steam railroad was shown to be useless. Previously, the "wise ones"—the chronic objectors to all innovations—had sagely observed that while locomotives might be all very well on a level, they would be useless in the "hill country."

This judgment was accepted as final until July 10, 1836, when the management of the Philadelphia & Columbia road determined to put it to a test. To the utter amazement of the spectators the locomotive puffed slowly but surely up the incline.

Element of Pure Value

Doubtless there is in every art an element of mere knowledge . . . and that element is progressive. But there is another element, too, which does not depend on knowledge, and which does not progress, but has a kind of stationary and eternal value, like the beauty of the dawn, or the love of a mother for her child, or the joy of a young animal in being alive, or the courage of a martyr facing torment. We cannot for all our progress get beyond these things; there they stand, like light upon the mountains. The only question is whether we can rise to them.—Sir Gilbert Murray, in "The Legacy of Greece."

Little Difference

At a chateau where he was recently a guest a certain Parisian who does not approve of the boyish appearance of the modern young girl was approached by a lady guest.

"Madame," said he earnestly. "I do not know. In 1929 I had a boy of twelve and a girl of fourteen. But now I am not sure. I believe they are both boys. At all events I assure you that it is quite impossible for me to tell which is the boy and which is the girl."—Le Figaro, Paris.

Yugo-Slavia Water Power

Within the borders of that modern Balkan state, Yugo-Slavia, there are water-power sites available for hydro-electric development which could produce 3,056,000 horse power of electrical energy. Along the Drau river there are sites which could produce approximately 400,000 horse power, while nearly 750,000 horse power of electrical energy could be produced by hydro plants along the Danube.

Parents Co-Operating

California has a larger membership than any other state in the National Congress of Parents and Teachers—129,212 out of a total membership of 875,000. One hundred and ninety-three new associations were organized in the state this year.

The Consumer's Dollar

Of the consumer's dollar 79.6 per cent is the average required for necessities, including shelter, food, clothing, light and heat. This leaves 20.4 per cent for savings, entertainments, development and sundry expenses.—Good Hardware.

Esthonian Cellulose

Esthonia cellulose mills are developing so rapidly with increased consumption of wool that exportation of pulp wood may be restricted beginning next year.

Going Too Far

When the nutrition experts begin to prove something about the quality of pies by experiments with rats they are carrying their nutrition experiments just a little too far.—Public Ledger.

Telephones in China

If China had as many telephones per capita as the United States, the number would total 100,000,000. As it is she has but 75,000 against our 25,000,000.

A Good Joke

Father (to son returning to college)—Don't you want some money?
Son—No; thanks just the same, Dad. I have some left from last term.—Life.

Continuous Roar

The roar of Niagara falls is to be broadcast by radio.

THE COUNTRY DOCTOR

When Montgomery, Ohio, took a vote recently in town meeting to determine the most distinguished citizen of that village and county, the choice fell unanimously on an old rural physician of the locality, who for forty-seven years had "climbed down from the muddy hub of his rig beside lonely farmhouses, watched the night through in the grim battle of life, turned the sheet tenderly over the faces of those he had perhaps brought into the world, and sympathized with the family in its hour of grief."

What a wonderful tribute that was! And how just!—Ft. Wayne News-Sentinel.

Heat with Distinction

At last it is proved that a home heater can be good looking—ornamental, if you will—as well as a practical heat-producing utility.

The Mueller Furnacette marks the greatest advance in home heating equipment since the invention of the heating stove. It is the joint creation of master furniture designers and skilled heating engineers. There is distinction in every line of its well-balanced, walnut-grained, vitreous enamel cabinet.

And as for heat—never was there an above-floor heater of any kind that could compare with the Furnacette in heating efficiency! It heats the whole house by continuously re-circulating warm, moist air thru all the rooms. It provides more comfortable, more uniform heat than two or three stoves combined, yet uses no more fuel than an ordinary heating stove.

Sold on convenient monthly payments.

When Shall I Doubt?

When shall I doubt? Not while He guides my feet!
Not while He feeds my soul
With manna sweet!
Not while He sees and knows
My slightest needs,
And e'en with food of earth
My body feeds!
Not till my God cares not!
When will that be?
When time is not, nor e'en—Eternity.

Modern Rome to Build

Two Big Public Baths

Rome.—Public baths, which constituted part of the greatness of ancient Rome, are beginning to come into vogue again with the ever-growing interest in athletics on the part of Italian youth.

Inspired partly by the grandiose
ruins of such ancient structures as the baths of Caracalla and Diocletian and
partly by the practicability of modern gymnasiums, Italian architects have drawn up plans for the erection of two massive structures which are destined
to serve the Roman public not only
as baths but also as athletic and sport
centers.

One of these is to be constructed in the Piazza Risorgimento, in the center
of one of Rome's most rapidly growing residential sections.

"The Store That Treats You Right."

The Extravagance of Cheapness!

If one has money to waste on clothing, it may be all right to buy some of the so-called "cheap"
goods that are so freely advertised.

But comparatively few people
can afford this form of extravagance. The man who is careful of his expenditures is not wasting money on poorly made ill-fitting clothes whose only attraction is a low first cost.

However, the shrewd and discerning buyers have contributed to our steady growth. The sea-
